PROPOSED REDUCTION OF SALARY

Arouses Safety Director
Dayton, Who Threatens To Call Referendum

OFFERS TO SERVE GRATIS

Or Donate Half His Salary to City Hospital if Councilmembers Will Do Likewise
—Bonham Accepts Defi,
But No Other Responds.

Safety Director Carl Dayton gave notice to the city council last night, that he would not tamely submit to a cut in his salary, and after threatening to get a referendum petition on the ordinance making the reduction, if it were passed, he told the body to go ahead and "shoot." The proposed cut is from $600 to $200 per annum.

The ordinance was read for the first time, and when remarks were called, Mr. Dayton who had one of the seats inside the rail reserved for city officers, arose and said that he thought he was the one most vitally interested in the proposed legislation.

"I don't know what is behind this ordinance nor the animus which projects it, neither what it is intended to accomplish. Is it economy in the expenditure of city money? Well that won't do, as I will show you by a few figures. I have in the ordinary course of human events a year and a half to serve, and by cutting my salary $25 per month the council will have $450. But I have enough friends I believe to get a referendum on the ordinance, and I believe that the people will see my position more clearly and the true hidden meaning behind the measure will become apparent. This will mean a special election and Election Board Clerk, Michael Sachs, informs me, that will cost in the neighborhood of $1250. So if economy is the cry you see it will not be a saving but an additional cost, so go ahead and shoot, and we will see what the people think."

Dr. C. F. Legge, councilman-at-large speaking in favor of his ordinance said that he believed everybody who had any conception of the duties of the Safety Director, were of the opinion that $600 per year was an exorbitant salary; that before Mr. Dayton's time competent men had been found to serve at $25 per month.

"Besides the director's salary there is attached $300 per year for clerk hire and the clerk's duties are not heavy enough to require him to be in his office even part of the time, and I believe a stop should be put to this kind of public expenditure."

Director Dayton came back by saying that he had no doubt some men could be had for $25 per month, but he never found it economical to hire cheap help at the expense of competence.

"However to show I am game, I will serve the city for nothing the rest of my term, and give the other half of my salary to the City Hospital if every councilman will agree to give half of his."

"I'll take you up on that proposition," shouted Councilman Bonham, but no other councilman volunteered and the ordinance was referred to the safety committee.

The Buena Vista street paving ordinance came up for final passage and it was evident that council was determined to dispose of this pestiferous piece of legislation, which has been hanging fire for a long time. Some of the people on that street want the pavement laid of one material, some of another but the ordinance provides for brick. It was suggested that brick paving past the hospital would be too noisy, but Councilman Rexroth said he had been to a large city hospital recently where brick pavements were laid on all sides and down an alley. He asked about this noise proposition and was informed that it did not bother the patients in the least.

James McVeigh said he had lived in the north end of Buena Vista street for thirty years, and he did not want the pavement up that part of the street at all. He claimed that the majority of the residents in that vicinity were of the same opinion as he, but none were present to speak and the ordinance was passed.

President pro tem Keller called the meeting to order in the absence of President Rossel. Members present, Ashbrook, Baker, Bonham, Keller, Knauber, Legge, Payne, Rexroth, Seward.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The committee appointed to confer with W. W. Rugg reported that it would not be advisable to lease the old gas property east of the B. & O. depot, for a period of 10 years, but did recommend that in view of the dilapidated look of the property it would be well to lease for bill board purposes and otherwise put it into better shape; received and fled. Payne and Bader spoke against bill boards in any part of the city.

ASKS WITHDRAWAL OF NOMINATION TO
THE RESERVE BOARD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 7.—Paul M. Warburg of New York today formally requested President Wilson to withdraw his nomination to be a member of the federal reserve board. The president will do so today.

Mr. Warburg, a member of the banking house of Kuhn, Loeb and Company was nominated for a four year term. When the Senate banking committee began examining personally all the five candidates nominated by the president Mr. Warburg indicated he did not wish to be questioned by the committee as a condition to taking the appointment. Today he called the White House office by telephone and personally requested the president to withdraw his nomination.

There was no indication who the president might choose to fill the place. The change in personnel however, will not further delay the actual organization of the new currency.

The Senate already has confirmed W. P. G. Harding, A. C. Miller and Charles S. Hamlin as members of the board and they, with Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams, also served as members, ex-officio, constitute a quorum, which may proceed with the work.

GRAND JURY MAY ACT

Sheriff Threatens to Take Case Away from Coroner
—Dr. Carman, in Whose Office Woman Was Killed, Makes Statement.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Freeport, N. Y., July 7.—Private and county detectives continued today their investigation of the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey who was so mysteriously shot while in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman. The inquest into the murder, adjourned yesterday, is to be resumed tomorrow provided the matter is not taken out of the coroner's hands by the grand jury.

Dr. Carman said today that he welcomed the arrival last night of the head of a national detective agency and his men.

"If the court had not bired this man, I would have done so when the inquest was concluded," he said. "During the interviews this man and his subordinates have had with my wife they did their best, just as the county authorities did to make her change her story. I believe she has told the whole truth. The detective chief is welcome at our house any time. I hope he can find the person who murdered Mrs. Bailey, and I will give him all the help I possibly can."

(Associated Press Telegram)
Freeport, N. Y., July 7.—The abrupt ending of the coroner's inquest into the slaying of Mrs. Louise Bailey on June 30 in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman, and the announcement that the Nassau County Grand Jury would begin an investigation of the case on Thursday next led to reports today that the testimony of the most important witnesses was being withheld while clues developed at the hearing yesterday could be followed up.

A disagreement between Coroner Norton and Sheriff Stephen P. Petten was also hinted at and it was given said that the sheriff and district attorney had determined to present their case to the grand jury thereby ignoring the coroner's inquiry.

District Attorney Smith made no effort today to conceal his theory of the case. He insists that the murder was accomplished by a woman, but so far has kept the object of his suspicion a secret.

The district attorney's action in retaining a detective agency to investigate the murder served to prove in the minds of many who have watched the progress of the case that the county officials were not satisfied with the results already obtained and now proposed to draw their clues to a head for presentation to the grand jury.

Aside from developing a case based on his own theories the head of the detective agency, it was intimated, was prepared to investigate the stories told Dr. Carman, and W. P. W. Haff, that they were shot at by an unknown man. Haff, who resembles Dr. Carman, told the police that he believed the shots at him were intended for the doctor. Dr. Carman yesterday insisted that the man who fired at him was riding a bicycle which he guided with his right hand, using his left to fire the revolver. This follows his theory that a left handed man fired the shot that killed Mrs. Bailey.

Another clue being followed today has to do with a threat alleged to have been made by a woman that

FIRST PICTURES OF CHILDREN OF THE FAMILY OF GEN. HUERTA

These are the children of the family of General Huerta, the Mexican dictator, who were reported the other day to have been sent from Mexico City in preparation for the flight of the Mexican president himself.

The two on the left are grandchildren of the dictator, children of his son, who is 45 years of age. But the pair at the right, 8 and 6 years old respectively, are children of the general and aunts of the elder girls. General Huerta's son is thus 39 years older than his youngest sister.

CONFIRMS STORY OF THREATS MADE AGAINST CARMAN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Philadelphia, July 7.—John Howe of this city, who was reported to have telephoned David Kennedy of Freeport that a woman with whom Howe was cruising had threatened to kill Dr. Carman, was found here today and confirmed the story told by Dr. Carman to detectives.

Howe, who is in business here, said that summer before last he invited a Freeport man and his wife to an outing on Great South Bay, L. I., in his motorboat. He would not give the names.

"We landed at an island," Howe said, "and ran across David Kennedy and Dr. Carman. I knew them both. The moment we spied them the woman in our party screamed and ran back to the boat. Her husband remained where he was, surprised and non-plussed by his wife's action. I ran to the boat after her. I found her on a seat in hysterics. She was screaming 'that man ruined my husband, and ruined me. I am going to kill him if it takes a lifetime.' She picked up a paper knife shaped like a dagger and started to leave the boat. I caught her and kept her back and asked whom she meant. 'Dr. Carman' she said."

Howe said the woman refused to explain her actions and demanded to be taken back home at once. When her husband came aboard the party returned to Freeport.

"Neither one of them spoke of the incident again," said Howe. "I did not try to find out the reason for it and never gave it another thought until this murder occurred. I thought over it all since and decided to tell of it, although I hated to do so."

Howe said he telephoned Kennedy of the incident and the latter recalled it and said he would notify the police.

Howe also said that he had a telephone message from Freeport today that detectives had gone to the woman's house but did not find her at home.

Opening Session Today of Ohio State Bar Association
Occurring at Cedar Point

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cedar Point, O., July 7.—Harlan F. Burkett, of Findlay, president of the Ohio Bar Association, opened the convention here at 3 o'clock this afternoon when in his address he condemned politicians, lawmen, lawyers and the press for too free criticism of the judicial system. "It has become fashionable during the past five or six years to complain of the delays of the courts, and carelessly and unjustly criticize courts and judges," he said.

He said reforms could not be accomplished unless the public, lawyers and press held the court in highest esteem and confidence. He said that sympathy caused the public to side with criminals on trial and that there was a general disregard for law in this country.

"Hard losing, complaining lawyers are too much inclined to try their cases in the newspapers," he said.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cedar Point, O., July 7.—A fight was brewing among lawyers who gathered here today to attend the opening session of the Ohio State Bar Association's meeting, over recommendations which the committee on judicial administration and legal reform will make late today. Action on the recommendations is expected tomorrow.

One suggestion of the committee which induced varying expressions of opinion among members of the association is the recommendation that the statute providing for the election of judges on a special or non-partisan ballot be repealed, and that judges be elected on party tickets.

Other recommendations which are being discussed today are: That only persons who have been admitted to practice law be allowed by law to be court judges. That territory in court of appeals districts be rearranged or increased in number to facilitate disposition of cases. That any judge of common pleas or appellate court accused of having mental bias in any case by a party involved in the suit, shall be replaced for the particular case by another judge on order of the chief justice of the Supreme court.

That the present new mechanic's lien law be amended to provide better protection to owners of property and those holding mortgages.

That the state supreme court be qualified to establish uniform practice for all state courts. That mere technical branches of fire insurance contracts be made null as defenses against payment of the first loss; making only actual breaches of contract which are direct causes of the fire ground for contesting payment. This recommendation was made last year but not acted upon.

Another suggestion that any person who solicits and procures an insurance contract shall be considered an agent of the company, is made without recommendation.

Legislation to effect each recommendation is proposed.

The annual meeting will continue until Thursday afternoon.

The feature of the meeting is an address tomorrow afternoon by District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, of New York. Harlan F. Burkett, president of the association is on the program for the annual address of the president this afternoon. Members will hold a social and dance this evening.

George F. Arrel, of Youngstown, will give an appreciation of the late Supreme Court Judge Willom T.

Spear tomorrow morning. The program for Thursday includes addresses by Dudley R. Kennedy of Youngstown on the subject "Workmen's Compensation," and Roland W. Baggett, probate judge of Dayton on "The Juvenile Court."

INVESTIGATION OF EXPLOSION THAT KILLED 4 PEOPLE

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, July 7.—The first steps toward a rigid investigation of the cause of the explosion that killed three men and a woman and wrecked the upper floor of a Lexington Avenue tenement on Saturday last, are expected to be taken today when Coroner Helestein issues subpoenas for the leaders of anarchistic organizations and free speech leagues who are identified in the movements to draw attention to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., for his alleged policy in connection with the Colorado mine strike.

They will be asked to tell what they know of the conference that took place Friday night, ostensibly for the discussion of the Tarrytown offense.

STRIKERS NOT READY TO CLAIM
THEIR OLD JOBS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Pittsburg, July 7.—The expected rush of strikers to claim their old jobs at the plants of the Westinghouse companies did not take place this morning, although a hundred or more men were added to the working force in the electric shops. State troops and strike pickets were to be seen everywhere but they experienced no difficulty in maintaining the good order that has characterized the strike. Leaders of the men declared the new workers were brought from Pittsburg, but the company employees said they were from the ranks of the strikers.

Many applications for food were received at the strikers commissary and all demands were promptly met.

A free lunchroom for single men, opened today, did a rushing business at the breakfast hour. It became known that a number of radical labor leaders had asked the general committee for permission to address the strikers, but when they were told that they must not advocate violence, it was stated they withdrew their requests.

DISMISSAL OF ANGELES

From the Army by Gen.
Carranza May Mean Another Break With Villa, Although It is Claimed Leaders Will Adjust Differences.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, July 7.—The outcome of parleys at Torreon where envoys of Carranza and Villa discussed causes that led to the estrangement between the constitutional chiefs anxiously was awaited here today. While news from Torreon declared the results of the meeting would be "entirely satisfactory to the constitutional cause," yet reports from other sources asserting that the conference was in deadlock caused some uneasiness.

Plans for a meeting between representatives of Huerta who took part in the Niagara mediation proceedings and delegates of the constitutionalists, would await the results of the Torreon parleys, it generally was believed here today. The crux in the Torreon situation, it appeared, was based on disputes over the personnel of the "advisory boards" surrounding both Carranza and Villa. Each side, it was said, was demanding the elimination of certain counselors of the other.

Carranza's action in dismissing General Felipe Angeles from the constitutional army with its prospect of another break with Villa was the principal topic of discussion today among constitutionalists agents here. Charles A. Douglas, General Carranza's counsel, declared openly that Angeles must be removed from the situation before peace could be brought about between Carranza and Villa.

According to one personal message from Villa, received here today from Torreon, differences between himself and Carranza are being satisfactorily adjusted.

No mention was made of General Angeles. Pending the outcome of the Torreon conference Carranza's agents continued their watchful waiting for his decision as to the proposed conference with Huerta's delegates.

Juan F. Urquidí, secretary of the constitutionalist agency, who recently started for Mexico on a confidential mission, returned today.

His friends urged him not to join Carranza because of his avowed support of Villa.

VILLA WILL VISIT CHIEF
AT SALTILLO

(Associated Press Telegram)

Saltillo, Mex., July 6, via Laredo, Texas, July 7.—Gen. Villa will come to Saltillo and by a personal visit seal a bond of friendship and allegiance to General Carranza, according to a report received today by high officials at Carranza headquarters.

It was asserted here that the conferences of the commissions representing Villa and Carranza, which met at Torreon to smooth out the difficulties which existed between the two chiefs has been entirely successful and that General Villa would accompany the Carranza commission on its return to Saltillo. This latter has not been confirmed officially but there is a spirit current in official circles here which would seem to confirm that the mission of the delegates sent to Torreon has been successful. It was reported that regular traffic between Saltillo and Torreon would be restored within the next few days.

Health officer, Dr. W. H. Knauss said that the swamp between Jackson street and the railroad should be drained, as the conditions there were unsanitary.

The ordinance was passed by a vote of 8 yeas, 1 no.

IF KIDNEYS ACT
BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with the backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and sluggish. When your kidneys get sluggish, and clog your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then be able to take care of the uric acid. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular men and women. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

LADIES! DARKEN
YOUR GRAY HAIR

Look years younger! Use Grandmother's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant. Agents Hall's drug store.

Big Wool Sale.

Mr. Charles Donaldson of Eden township, has just closed a wool sale of 100,000 pounds, at prices around 26 cents per pound. The sacking of the wool is to begin Thursday morning. Mr. Donaldson purchased a considerable portion of this wool last year at prices averaging about 20 cents a pound. At this price he purchased all the wool that was offered him, and says that he felt confident that under this Democratic administration there was certain to be an increase in wool values. All Licking county wool growers are reaping the benefits. Mr. Donaldson's judgment in business affairs is as sound as his Democracy.

Wheat Growing.

The wheat eaters and the wheat growers of the world are nip and tuck—largely tuck. Ten years ago the statisticians said the wheat eaters consumed only four bushels a year. But recently James J. Hill has figured it that they are getting away with seven. The inevitable result has been much higher prices. So the news of the biggest wheat crop ever raised, with 154,000,000 bushels in Kansas alone, means some help on living costs in millions of families.

Formerly wheat was something of a luxury. Half of Europe lived on "black bread." In the United States simple country people used "hasty pudding" and corn cake. Many economically minded families of the old days never had white bread, save when the minister or other dignitaries called. Now the same families are buying wheat cereal preparations put up in a wasteful manner in small packages with fancy paper coverings.

The cereal habit has enormously increased the wheat eaters. The old time rustic family had for breakfast sausage, hash, liver, or often steaks or warmed over roasts. A similar diet means bankruptcy today. The simple modern morning meal of cereal, toast or muffins, coffee, eggs when possible, and fruit, of which wheat is the backbone, looks terribly skimpy and parsimonious to your older cousins. Yet to modern taste it

By the Way

If old Huerta were Julius Caesar, Or lived in the day of Nebuchadnezzar, Would he take a swim in brandy, Get up in the morning feeling dandy, Ride with Diana in an aeroplane, Meet Semiramis and her gorgeous train, Feed some ham to Hamlet, And offer to Scipio a strong cigar?

So many women go to the hospitals nowadays that it no longer is much of a distinction to have had an operation performed.

Short Sermons Popular.
A suburban minister, during his discourse one Sunday morning said: "In each blade of grass there is a sermon." The following day one of his flock discovered the good man pushing a lawn mower about, and paused to say: "Well, parson, I'm glad to see you engaged in cutting your sermons short."

Widows' Caps.
The widow's cap is a survival of an old Roman custom. Widows were obliged to wear their weeds for ten months, and the bereaved woman shaved her head as a token of mourning. Naturally the widow could not very well appear in public with a bald head, so dainty caps were made in order to hide the disfigurement. The cap still remains, though the immediate necessity for its existence has long passed away.

Paragraphs

Washington's Advice.
If the United States stands largely by itself in international affairs it is doing exactly what George Washington counseled it to do.—Chicago Herald.

Sunshine and Soap.
Mr. Rockefeller is devoting vast sums to establishing laboratories with a view of finding cures for diseases. The philanthropy that looks to preventing disease by means of soap and sunshine will not command so much scientific interest, but it will help.—Washington Star.

Needed In Mexico.
Mexico is said to need a "man of the hour." But if developments continue there in their present direction a man will be needed for each of the twenty-four.—Cleveland Leader.

Has Done Good Service.
It is an ungrateful. Progressive who feels no thrill of sentiment at sight of George W. Perkins's battle-scarred check-book.—Washington Star.

One Is Enough.
An exchange calls Huerta "two-faced." The suggestion that there is another face like that is appalling.—Columbia State.

Wireless Telegraphy.
During the few years in which wireless telegraphy has been in practical use, it has aided in saving more than five thousand lives at sea. That is a story of usefulness that in its kind could hardly be surpassed.—Youth's Companion.

Bird Census.
The census of the birds of the United States that is to be taken this summer is an enterprise of great practical value. It will throw much light on the effects of the national and the state laws for the protection of birds, and on the question whether further measures are needed for the welfare of those inestimably serviceable friends of man.—Youth's Companion.

Spats.
"I should like to see some spats, said the precise gentleman.
"Well, stick around," suggested the new floorwalker. "The salesladies are starting 'em all the time."

HAL CRANSTON
Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cranston of Newark.

A young Hudson avenue Miss of few years, had her first visit to Buckeye Lake Park, one day this week and among the other things shown for her amusement she was taken to the Glass Pavilion to watch them dance. On returning home she was questioned as to what she saw. Her reply was something like this, "Oh, I guess I can't 'member, 'cept the garbage men played the band!"

The Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph says that Robbie's grandfather was a veteran of the Civil War, and in talking to his little grandson about the battles he said: "Nearly a generation and half ago, Robbie, my head was grazed by a bullet in the battle of Chickamauga." Robbie looked at the bald pate of his grandpa attentively and said: "Not much grazing there now, is there?"

Little Stella, who had been naughty, and had been punished by her mother in a manner peculiarly obnoxious to the little one, had cherished a grievance all day. At bedtime she rather reluctantly knelt at that cruel parent's knee and said aloud her little prayer, closing with the familiar formula of asking the Lord to "bless" each and every member of the household and a large family connection, pointedly omitting all mention of her mother in her petitions.

Lifting from her knees she remarked with cold politeness: "I suppose you noticed that you weren't in it."

New York, July 7.—Most stocks of speculative importance were unchanged as to quoted values in today's early dealings, but showed a inclination to recede later. Special issues were again prominent, U. S. Express, U. S. Steel, and Central Leather, all rising 1 to 1 1/2 points. Canadian Pacific and Ontario and Western declined a point, while Rock Island recorded a new low price at 11 1/2. Advances from Paris pointed to the success of the new French loan exerted no influence here.

COUNTY TREASURIES MUST PAY EXPENSES OF THE PRIMARIES

County treasurers must pay the expense of election officials for primary registration, and in counties containing registration cities the city is not required to bear any of the expense.

This is the gist of a decision forwarded to County Auditor J. W. Hursey Monday from the office of Attorney General Hogan, in which the latter interprets the statutes on request of the Columbus board of elections, in an effort to smooth out the doubtful features.

Attorney General Hogan construes the statutes to mean that election expenses shall be borne by the city and county, pro-rata, but he decides that the item of registration is different. He declares the statutes on this point are not free from doubtful construction, that while in elections, the cost in city precincts must be divided pro-rata between the city and the county, that in the matter of registration the county foots the bill.

Potato Juice Cure.

Potato juice as a remedy for sprains, lumbago, root, rheumatism and bruises is recommended by Dr. Heaton C. Howard of London in an article in the London Lancet. He cites numerous cases in his own practice in which the pain has been relieved quickly, sometimes by the first application, and the fluid that has exuded into the joint or the membranes has been absorbed within a few days.

Potato juice is used as an ointment, a liniment or a plaster. The raw potatoes are squeezed in a hydraulic press. The starch and nitrogenous matter are removed and the juice boiled down until it is made five times as strong as when fresh. Glycerin is added to preserve it.

ANNUAL PICNIC AT BLACK HAND ON AUGUST 20

Toboso, O., July 7.—The annual Black Hand reunion and picnic will be held on Aug. 20. The 15th of August was set for the gathering in the hope that Governor Cox could attend but later Secretary Burba wrote to the committee saying that as that date was so close to the primary election (Aug. 11) that the governor could not attend. Because of this fact the committee has returned to the former date and the picnic will take place on Aug. 20.

Energy in the Sun.
At the distance of the earth from it (93,000,000 miles), the heat energy yearly expended by the sun is as great in amount as would be produced by the burning of sixty-six globes of the best anthracite coal, each as heavy as the earth, or 3,346 globes, each equal in weight to the moon. But the greater part of this energy is, as far as we can see, expended upon empty space because, except where a planetary body is interposed in the path of the rays, there is nothing for them to act upon. Only about two-thousand-millionth of the sun's radiant energy is intercepted by the earth and only about one two hundred-and-twenty-five-millionth by all the planets together. This makes the sun look like a gigantic spendthrift, but if he did not radiate in every direction he would not be seen from distant space, he would not be a star among the stars, and who can say that what he expends to make himself known and to maintain his rank in the universe, is not as well spent as the gratuities that he flings to his planets—Garrett P. Serviss in Spokane Review.

CONVENTION OF RURAL CARRIERS HERE NEXT WEEK

On July 14, 15 and 16 a convention will be held in this city which will bring representatives from every county in the State Rural Letter Carriers' Association, and will be composed of 250 delegates, who will be accompanied by other carriers, probably to the number, all told, of 800 people, who will be Newark's guests for three days.

The establishment of the rural delivery throughout the states of the Union marked one of the greatest advances in the history of the country. It brought the farmer into daily contact with the world, a condition which his situation before had not permitted. In the days before this movement was inaugurated the farmer would get his mail once a week, while often two weeks would elapse before his duties on the farm, during the busy season, would permit him to take a short holiday to do his shopping and get his mail. All this has been changed, and the daily mail not only permits him to keep posted on the events of the day as they occur, but as well gives him the opportunity to save himself trips to the town by sending in, through the carrier, for what he is most in need of to help him carry on his work. Broken machinery parts are replaced without it being necessary for him to leave his home, and he gets what he needs in a day's time; family necessities are easily procured and his household supplies are kept up by the same means.

In former days he was dependent upon his weekly trips for news of what was going on throughout the world, and often news would be old before he learned of what was happening. All this has been changed by means of the rural delivery service, and the rural letter carrier comes as a good angel to bring to the farmer the light of intelligence and knowledge. He is the connecting link between the agriculturist and the world, and as such becomes a great factor in the advance movement of the world.

The rural delivery service was started in 1838 with 148 carriers and who covered a daily mileage of 2,960 miles, at an annual cost of $50,241. Today it embraces over 42,685 carriers who cover daily 1,028,603 miles, while the annual expense amounts to $47,298,169.

Their duties keep them out in all kinds of weather and demand of them arduous labor in their rounds. Ohio has 2,538 routes, aggregating 60,406 miles in length, with an average of 23.50 miles to the route, being twenty-seventh in the list of states for the length. Illinois, with 2,856 routes, has an aggregate of 69,554 miles, with an average of 24.15 miles to the route, while Nevada has but four routes with an aggregate of 85 miles and an average of 21.25.

The government is insistent that the roads over which its representatives travel daily shall be in fairly good condition so that no especial hardship shall be permitted upon the men who are daily traveling them in the interests of the public, and this action of the government is having its influence on the Good Roads movement of both state and nation. This is but fair and just to the carriers as well as a big help to the general public. An addition to the labors of the carrier has been made by the installation of the parcel post feature of the postoffice department, but this has also in a measure, been beneficial to the agricultural community, for it enables those engaged in tilling the soil and raising vegetables and chickens to market their products without being compelled to leave their homes in order to do so. It simplifies produce trading to a great extent but it also works an additional hardship on the carrier. This he bears uncomplainingly, as he realizes that it is for the good of humanity.

Taken all in all the life of a rural carrier is not a bed of roses by any means, nor is it the snap that a person might think who sees the carrier start out in the morning of a bright, sunny day in his wagon going on his rounds and carry messages to the people on his route. On the contrary it is a steady grind all day long, six days in the week, and the only pleasure he gets out of it is in bringing good news to his patrons.

When the service was first started the pay was so small that it did not attract very many to its service, but since the service has grown to larger dimensions and the government has noted the need of better service, the rate of pay has increased, and the younger men are being attracted to the work as being of good class and

SUNDAY SERVICES AT FIFTH STREET BAPTIST CHURCH

The services at the Fifth Street Baptist church Sunday were largely attended and Dr. Charles H. Stull, the pastor, was at his best. Both sermons were spoken of in words of commendation by those who heard them. After the evening discourse, on the subject, "The Folly of Self-Confidence," two went forward to unite with the church. In the morning four heads of families received the hand of church fellowship. Dr. Stull's discourse was on the subject, "Gethsemane and a Strengthening Angel." The speaker dwelt on the fact that it was the Son of God who needed to be strengthened. It was also a scene of God's physical suffering, investing the garden with peculiar dignity and adoration. Intense pain even in a dumb animal commands attention, no matter how busy with other cares we may be. Coarse natures alone can ignore sorrow and agony; behold then how vulgar and unfeeling to ignore these pains of the noblest and highest of men. The speaker gave some characteristics of the strengthening angel. That secret was to minister unto the Son of God. All, said the speaker, who minister unto the Savior and others, to the best of their ability, are strengthening angels also, unsurpassed even in heaven. But all our gifts on Holy altars, all our religious rites, our prayers and efforts are useless to Jesus unless they help to bless and save others.

Pepys' Library.

Pepys' library since 1724 has been in the possession of Magdalene college, Cambridge. Pepys directed in his will that his collection of books and manuscripts should be transferred on the death of his nephew, John Jackson, to either Trinity college or Magdalene college, Cambridge, and required that the college which received the books should submit to an annual visitation from the other, the purpose of which should be to ascertain whether the trust was being worthily fulfilled. "Could I be sure," Pepys wrote, "of a constant succession of heirs from my said nephew qualified like himself for the use of such a library, I should not entertain a thought of its ever being alienated from them."

FIRST USE OF RESINOL STOPS TERRIBLE ITCH

Jan. 27, 1914: "I suffered over eight years with eczema. It started in one little place and kept spreading until it covered my hands. My hands looked like they had been burned by fire and peeled off in large pieces until they were only raw flesh. I was told it was eczema. It itched and burned me so that I could not sleep at night. I tried all sorts of eczema salves and one prescription after another but nothing gave me any relief until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and after the first application my hands never itched or burned again, and were well in one week. I want every sufferer from eczema to know that they can find a cure in Resinol." (Signed) Miss Ethel Scott, Milford, Ga.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for nineteen years, for all sorts of skin troubles, pimples, dandruff, sores, ulcers, burns, etc. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap.

HOW TO MAKE A REAL WRINKLE REMOVER
In these days of cleverly advertised
"beautifiers" of 57 varieties and more, it is hard for a woman to believe she can make a simple home remedy for those hateful marks of age, worry and illness, which will do her more good and cost her much less than the average made preparation. There's nothing in the world so effective for removing or preventing wrinkles, crow's feet and creases as a solution made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered salicylic acid in a half pint of witch hazel. Every druggist has the ingredients.
Use this harmless mixture daily as a refreshing lotion, bathing the face in it two or three minutes at a time.
The quick and satisfactory results will surprise you. Even the first application produces wonderful improvement.
The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a firm, "solid," comfortable feeling. Advertisement

A series of foot races will be arranged and the Grange is planning for a most successful picnic.

POLICE CONTINUE SEARCH TODAY FOR
'CHICAGO MURDERER'

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, July 7.—Hampered by an apparent absence of motive for the crime, the police today continued the search for the murderer who, with an axe killed Jacob Mischel, his wife, their daughter, Mrs. Martha Mischel, and her seven-months-old infant Sunday night. The police were loath to believe that the slayer was the mysterious axe murderer credited with the deaths of twenty-five persons killed by axe blows in the past three years in the midwest.

Principal object of the search was a half-witted man, former boarder with the Mischel family, who had difficulties with Mischel. William slans-field, son-in-law of Mischel, who has not been seen by the family for a year, also was sought. No evidence imlicated either. Michael Cherwinski, another former boarder, was questioned and released yesterday.

NO TROUBLE TO KEEP SKIN FREE FROM HAIRS.

There is no need for any woman to countenance superfluous hairs, because with a paste made by mixing some powdered delatone with water it is easy to get rid of them. The paste is applied for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This treatment will rid the skin of hair without leaving a blemish, but care should be taken to see that you get real delatone.—Adv.

F. G. WARDEN FILES ANSWER TO $10,000 SUIT

Attorneys Jones & Jones, Carl Nor-pell and Norpell & Martin, representing F. G. Warden, filed an answer to common pleas court, Tuesday, to the suit instituted in behalf of the late William Allen Veach on a contract for consolidation of the Newark Electric Light & Power company and the Citizens Light and Power company, competing concerns. The Veach interests in the action are now represented by Charles C. McGruder, administrator.

The suit was originally brought to recover on an agreement by which Mr. Veach was to receive $10,000 in stock of the Newark company, which which was to be capitalized at $50,000, in the event of a consolidation with the Citizens company was accomplished. This $10,000 was to represent Veach's remuneration for services rendered in aiding in promotion of the transaction.

It appears that Warden owned 186 shares of the Citizens company's stock and desired to buy the capital stock of the Newark company.

W. S. Wright, claiming an option on both companies' stock, brought suit about this time in the federal court in Cincinnati to enforce his claim on the options.

In May, 1901, the agreement was entered into between Warden and Veach to the effect that if no consolidation could be accomplished, the Newark company should be capitalized at $50,000.

Captain Warden some time later sold all of his stock of both companies to other parties, but he denies that the stock was sold to Wright.

The answer lost money for many years and that if it had been capitalized at $50,000 the stock would not have been worth more than $5,000, in which event Veach's $10,000 would not have been worth to exceed $1,000, it is averred.

Worshipping a Turtle.
At a place called Kotron, on the French Ivory Coast, the natives believe that to eat or destroy a turtle would mean death to the guilty one or sickness among the family. The fetish men, of which there are plenty, declare that years ago a man went to sea fishing. In the night his canoe was thrown upon the beach empty. Three days afterward a turtle came ashore at the same place with the man on its back alive and well. Since that time they have never eaten or destroyed one of that species, although they enjoy other species.

If one happens now to be washed ashore there is a great commotion in the town. First, the women sit down and start singing and beating sticks; next a small piece of white cloth (color must be white) is placed on the turtle's back. Food is then prepared and placed on the cloth, generally plant-ains, rice and palm oil. Then, amid a lot more singing, dancing and antics of the fetish people, it is carried back into the sea and goes on its way rejoicing.

Inexhaustible Rome.
"Rome is wonderful," said a man familiar with the historic city. "Rome is inexhaustible. There is a story that describes Rome well.

"The pope was giving audience. He said to a lady in black:
"How long have you been in Rome?"
"Three weeks," the lady answered.
"Ah," said the pope, "then you have seen Rome!"

"And he turned to an American merchant and asked:
"And you, sir, how long have you been in Rome?"
"Three months," the American replied.

"You, then, have begun to see Rome," said the pope. And he next accosted an elegant woman with gray hair.
"How long, madam," he asked,
"have you been here?"
"Three years," the woman answered.
"The pope smiled faintly.
"You," he said, "have not yet begun to see Rome."—New York Herald.

Our True Moles.
In this country there are five recognized groups of true moles, two of which are confined to the Pacific coast and the other three are distributed over the section east of the one hundredth meridian extending from Canada to the gulf of Mexico. In the latter districts and in the greater part of Pennsylvania, New York and New England the common mole occurs with the star nosed-mole and Brewer's mole.
The mole is so seldom seen even by those who are familiar with its work that it is often confused with other small creatures, particularly the shrew, the mole or meadow mouse and the pocket gopher. However, it can be readily distinguished by its stout, short front limbs ending in broad, rounded hands with palms turned outward. It has a rather elongated body, close, plushlike fur, a pointed snout and a short tail. Neither eyes nor ears are in evidence. It is a creature of strictly subterranean habits.

Wisdom of Father.
Brown, who lived in the suburbs, returned home late one evening with a package which he deposited on the dining room table. His wife, naturally curious, lost no time in starting to investigate.

"What have you been buying, Jimmy?" she asked, taking up the package and untwisting the string.

"A cornet," answered Jimmy.

"Have been thinking for some time"—

"A cornet?" was the wondering interjection of the wife. "I thought you knew better than to buy a cornet!
You know very well that the man next door worries you almost to death with his."

"Yes, I know," was the smiling response. "That is the one I bought."—

Origin of Life.
The scientific world is not in possession of even one fact as to the origin of life nor of the origin of anything whatever. All animals now start from very minute bodies called cells. Each kind of animal has its own fixed kind of cell. One kind of cell never changes into another. But the origin of the cell for each kind of animal is totally unknown.—New York

Chicago Attorney Has Vital Lecture For Chautauqua Week

HON. CLIFFORD G. ROE.

WHEN John D. Rockefeller, Jr. wanted a man to represent him in making an investigation of the white slave situation in New York city a few years ago he chose Clifford G. Roe, the young man who as a Chicago prosecutor was the first champion to enter the field to combat this system of slavery. Mr. Roe's lecture here will be one of the best features of a busy Chautauqua week. He is a man of fine personality, and his lectures are full of enthusiasm. One of the interesting features of his lectures is the presentation of material at first hand. Especially worth while are the confessions that the speaker has secured during his work as vice prosecutor.

ADDRESSES THE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) St. Paul, Minn., July 7.—"The difference of the public to all forms of intellectual effort is the discouraging characteristic of our times," declared Charles William Dabney, president of the University of Cincinnati, before the National Educational Association today.

"The rich man who employs a twenty-five thousand dollar lawyer or a ten thousand dollar physician," the speaker said, "regards a fifteen hundred dollar college professor as good enough to train his son."

Money-making, politics, sports, and picture shows are holding the interest of the public.

"The teacher to the ordinary man is a mere bookworm."

He made a plea for increased salary for professors, whom he termed finders of new knowledge and makers of men.

He suggested standardizing of expenses as a possible solution of the question. Marked progress in the development of retirement funds for teachers has been made by this country, W. I. Hamilton, Boston, Mass., said in an address on pensions.

"Seven years ago," he said, "two states were paying retirement allowances to teachers out of state funds. Now twelve have made more or less satisfactory provision for such payment."

The various state legislations elected members of the nominating committee last night and today these supporting Dr. David B. Johnson for the association presidency were claiming at least twenty-five of the forty seven states represented at the convention, enough to insure his nomination.

While the friends of Dr. David Starr Jordan's candidacy made no definite claims they seemed not to fear the outcome of their campaign for the California.

The nominating committee is to make its selection Thursday morning.

One of the most notable social center movements and extensions of high school activities begun in the middle west was outlined today by Principal Thomas J. McCormick of the township high school of LaSalle and Peru, Illinois, an institution organized under the Illinois township high school laws and combining the features of a junior college for an urban and rural community.

"In four buildings which constitute this unique plant," said Mr. McCormick, "not only is instruction given and contemplated in all agricultural lines, including subjects so far removed from one another as agriculture, art and technical music but private donations by F. W. Matthessen having permitted the construction of two buildings that both contribute to the educational facilities of the school and subserve distinctly civic and recreational purposes for the community."

These are: "1.—A social center and gymnasium building, with swimming pool, bowling alley, billiard room, club and reading rooms, library, music, art and lecture rooms, which with the large high school auditorium are used both day and night by school and public, and

"2.—A hygienic institute under a trained medical expert and assistants with bacteriological and pathological laboratory not duplicated outside the great metropolitan centers, a milk station with a trained nurse and a glass room for the baby and the general hygiene of the household institute while primarily founded to safeguard the health interests of the cities of LaSalle, Peru, and Oglesby, is directly affiliated with the school."

"It is hopefully augury for the ultimate success of our Democratic system of education that the social center of this school is supported entirely by the taxes of the people in this mining and industrial community."

Licking County Well Represented at Summer School

On Friday the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. gave a reception to all the summer school students in Athens, O. The two societies had arranged it so that the members of each county were gathered together in groups. Among 237 old Licking had 23 to the front in a single line and marched to the front giving the county yell. Mr. Johnson of Johnstown was elected president and Miss Zoe Frost of Croton was chosen as secretary. Committees were appointed to arrange for a picnic.

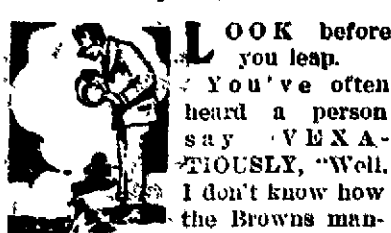

The people comprising the picnic on July 3, left the campus at 5 o'clock for East Hill. On the summit of the hill as the sun was dropping beneath the horizon a delicious supper was served to the following: Esther Mayer, Alta Wilkin, Alta Neighbors, Florence Hurlbaugh, Ella Varner, Edith Jones, Helen McCormick, Marguerite Cesana, Florence Boyd, Edith Nichols, Mary Palmer, Nina Meyers, Zoa M. Frost, Edna M. Rader, Gladys C. Cornell, Edna E. Hutchison, Helen Tobin, Sarah M. Amerine, Hazel Miller, Mable Campbell, Forest Crouse, Hazel Hall, Lena Anderson, Anabel Conrad, Katherine Mast, Emily Hall, Neva Baumgarten, Jeanne Wolf, Chloe Sharritt, Esther Banton, Nellie Smith, Irene McMahon, and Mrs. J. C. Marriott. The Messengers: Clay Skinner, J. C. Marriott, John Wilken, Kyle Varner, Walter Orr, John Behout, Nelson Beem, Hollis Beem, John Thompson, Frank Arnold and Mr. Johnson.

Ether Kissane, Gail Keckly, Floyd Morrison, Marguerite Morrison, Miss Bell and a few others are students here from Licking County but were not with the picnic crowd.

LOOK before you leap. You've often heard a person say VEXATION. Well, I don't know how the Browns manage to get things better and cheaper than I do all the time.

VEXATION never gets any one anywhere. What the Browns do is to LOOK BEFORE THEY LEAP. They take no chances with UNKNOWN QUALITY and QUANTITY and HIGH PRICES.

There is POSITIVELY NO NEED TO PLAY GRAB BAG with the serious business of buying.

ADVERTISING ELIMINATES RISK. Merchants know that giving the public a SQUARE DEAL through ADVERTISING is their BEST ASSET. No business man could ENDURE in this community who tried CONTINUOUSLY TO FOOL the people through printer's ink.

Equal Suffrage.
A group of Ohio suffragists not long ago, engaged a parlor in a Columbus hotel for a conference. Their orders, as transmitted to chief deckhand who attends to such things, in a hotel merely called for preparations for a political conference, without mentioning the sex of the conferees. He began by taking up a carpet. An ample spittoon stood close to each chair. Matches and ash receivers adorned the center table and the buffet waiter was told to be on the alert.

When the women arrived, among them several of the most refined and motherly matrons of Columbus, they could not help smiling at the preparations. But the buffet waiter and the cigar clerk did not smile. Many men fear that when lovely women fares forth into politics, she will get frightfully mused. The surroundings of he-politics, are coarse, unsightly, tobacco smeared. Are women to be dragged through such an atmosphere?

Fortunately we do not have to guess at the answer. Thirty years ago the average business office was a dusty, unsavory. The typewriter was invented and the lady stenographer followed it. Today no more immaculate furnishings exist than those in a strictly modern office. Woman will civilize politics just as she has civilized the business office. Man himself does not know how he despises his native untidiness until he sees woman in the center of it.

THE HOUSE MAY ELECT NEXT PRESIDENT

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 7.—[Special.]—Politicians have already begun to speculate upon the importance of carrying the house of representatives this fall in case of a three cornered fight in the presidential election of 1916. Should there be three tickets in the field, as in 1912, and these tickets should be anywhere near evenly balanced, none would secure a majority in the electoral college, and the choice of a president would devolve upon the house of representatives.

In that case the election would be by states, and each state delegation would cast one vote. Consequently it is important for some party to secure a majority of the states by delegations. It would not be surprising to see the election waged upon these lines.

Democrats Have an Advantage.
Owing to the split in the Republican party the Democrats will have an advantage in securing state delegations. They will start with sixteen states from the solid south, in which they are sure to control the delegations. They will only be required to elect a majority of the members of congress in nine of the states in order to have the twenty-five, which would control the house if the election of a president should be thrown into that body. At this time the Democrats can easily count the nine states that they are sure to carry.

"Delightful Uncertainty."
During one of the factional discussions of the rules of the senate, Vice President Marshall said "it reminded him of a remark of a Kentucky lawyer who said that the crowning glory of the practice of the law was its delightful uncertainty." Rulings have been made on both sides of this question," continued Mr. Marshall, "and the chair thinks he has ruled on both sides and decided both ways. The chair is not going to decide it again. Rather than have the Record disclose the fact that the chair has ruled on both sides he will submit it to the senate."

A Disturbing Question.
A question which seriously disturbs the Democrats while they are in control is that ever present problem of race. Although President Wilson was born south of the Potomac river and lived a long time in Georgia, he does not seem to have acquired the intense feeling of the average southern man on the race question. President Wilson insists upon appointing colored men to office, although he is opposed in this by nearly every southern senator.

In the house a number of bills have been introduced providing for the segregation of the races employed in the different departments. Congressman Park of Georgia has introduced a bill making it unlawful to appoint as commissioned or noncommissioned officers in the army or navy any persons of the colored race. Of course these bills have no show of passing, but they indicate the feelings of the southern men.

Bristow's Awful Suggestion.
Senator Simmons of North Carolina was trying to call up the river and harbor bill in the senate when Senator Bristow of Kansas objected. "There are bills on the calendar of far more importance than the river and harbor bill," declared the Kansas senator.

"What bills?" asked Senator Simmons with amazement, while other senators were almost aghast at the awful suggestion that any ordinary bills could be deemed more important than that which appropriated large sums for rivers and harbors in so many states and districts.

Navy Is National.
It would be natural to suppose that only congressmen living in states bordering on the sea would be interested in the navy, but such is far from the truth, particularly in the house. For the past sixteen years the chairman of the naval committee in the house has been from an inland state. Foss of Illinois served a greater portion of the time and now Padgett of Tennessee is chairman of that committee. It is also a fact that men from the interior states take a great deal of interest in the navy.

"Grape Juice Period."
"History will denounce this as the grape juice period in politics," remarked a man at the capitol who had just read about grape juice going aboard the battleships to take the place of booze which Secretary Daniels had promised. He also alluded to the prominence which Secretary Bryan had given to this nonalcoholic beverage. At the same time there is a rumor that the secretary of state has become so sensitive on the subject of grape juice that it no longer appears at dinners and other social functions.
